NASHVILLE, TENN. FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 12, 1853.

DESPERATE ENCOUNTER WITH BURGLARS.—The dwelling of J. W. Maury, Esq., at Wilmington, Delaware, (who, with his family, is absent at the springs.) was entered by two burglars on Thursday night last, Mr. Wm. McNeir and Mr. Jno. B. Nones, who were sleeping in the second story, were aroused by an attempt to open the door of their room, and on jumping up they discovered a man coming down from the third story with an arm load of articles. The Delaware Genette says:

Mr. McNair having a revolver, fired twice at the man descending the third story stairs, and then once upon him who was descending to the first floor, and followed the latter to the back or side door, into the yard, which the burglars had opened previously, and where he obtained egress. Mr. Nones next fired upon the man descending from the third story, with a small single barreled pistol, the man by that time reached the small sitting room in the second story of the back building, where the window by which the rascals had entered remained open on the portico, with which a grape arbor communicated. The man exclaimed, "My God, I am killed!" and stooped forward, whereupon Mr. Nones rushed upon him and striking him over the head with his empty pistol, closed with him. A severe struggle ensued, in which the fellow, being large and athletic, got the better of Mr. N., (who is but a boy of some 17 or 18 years of age,) and having gotten him under, commenced choking him, when he [Mr. N.] called or three loads yet left for the rascals, and bidding Nones hold on to him until he would give them to him. This seemed to frighten the scamp, who, releasing Mr. Nones, fled toward and through the open window, Mr. McNair in the meantime giving him one shot more, the only one the pistel would are of importance to all having the care of plantations.

Mr. Nones' night clothes were completely torn to pieces in the scuffle. The fellow whom Nones assaulted was a negro, which fact the former determined by the smell of his person and the feel of his wool while they were struggling. He dropped his plunder of course. It is not known whether they had previously carried off anything or not, as none of the family are in town. The fellows escaped, one through the adjoining yard of Mrs. Fell, where his footsteps were plainly apparent the next morning.

Ther imagine a long train of yellow or red silks, the middle of which is fastened to the small of her back and the ends of which, after passing under her, on the saddle, are turned backward in such a manner that, when the horse is on the gallop, they flutter out in the wind, extending back on each side as far as the horse's tail; and you have a tolerably good dea of a Kanaka lady taking an airing on horseback Saturday afternoon is a sort of holiday with them, and you may then often see twenty of them riding, all in company through the streets of the town, always on the gallop.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY AT OBERLIN, OHIO, -- Last Wednesday evening a most revolting murder was committed about three miles east of Oberlin, Ohio. The facts are as follows: A man named Follown, it is alleged, had slandered a Miss Barber and another young lady. The brother of Miss Barber and a Mr. Lovell, the lover of the other slandered girl, took the matter up. On Wednesday, in the morning, they went to Fullman's to talk the matter over. He repulsed them with fearful threats, and became desperately enraged. They left him and returned to their work. After supper one of the parties proposed that they take their rifles and go over to Fullman's house and frighten him. Acting in accordance with the proposal, they took their guns (a rifle and a shot-gun) and started. On ar-riving they found Fullman and his wife in a field raking hay. Lovell advanced to him and said:-"Well, I've come to have it out!" Fullman seized a pitchiork and made a desperate plunge at himhis wife clinging to him, shricking and endeavor-ing to prevent his striking Lovell. He succeeded in wounding him in three places with the fork .-Enraged beyond control at this, Lovell fired his piece, missing F, and lodging the contents in his wife's head, wounding her dangerously, perhaps mortally. He then handed the empty gun to Bar ber to re-load, took the loaded guu and started for home, Fullman following him with his pitchfork.— After going some distance, Lovell turned round, exclaiming, "D-n me if I don't shoot you, anyhow!" He fired, and Fullman being but two feet from him received the whole charge in his side teering him in a horrible manner, and killing him instantly. He leaves a family of three children -The murderers were immediately arrested.

It is composed of balsams, extracts and grans peculiar to Arabia—possessing, in a concentrated form, all their stimulating, anodyne, penetrating, unctuous and revulsive properties, and the same which, ages ago, were used by the "Sons of the Desert," with such miraculous success, in curiog the diseases of both man and beast.

Mr. H. G. FARRELL-Dear Sir: Actuated by a sense of Mr. H. G. Farmell.—Dear Sor: Actuated by a sense of gratefulness, I submit the following as an instance of the utility of your great medicine. My child, three years old, was suddenly attacked with a terrible disease, which in less than six bours prostrated it to total helphisaness. The limbs became so rigid that not a joint could be bent; the flesh turned black and cold and entirely deprived of feeling; the eyes fixed, partially closed and altogether blind, following this was deafness to all sounds; the spine became contracted and so curved that when lying on its back the head ing this was deafness to all sounds; the spine became con-tracted and so curred that when lying on its back the head and heels only touched. Indeed, the child presented every appearance of being dead. Immediately on the attack, the family physician was called in, and for three weeks he la-bored to restore it to feeling, but all in vait, although it was blistered a dozen times and various rubefacient Lini-ments applied. A consultation of physicians was then held, but to response the case was then beauty the force the Medi. but to no purpose, the case was then brought before the Med-ical Society, but nothing could be suggested which hat not already been done, and the doctor then told me he could do nothing more. We then commenced applying your Lini-ment freely over the entire length of the spine, and you may imagine a parent's joy, when, after a few applications, re-turning animation was apparent, and it rapidly recovered with the exception of the sight, which did not become per-fect for near a month. The child is now healthy and robust as can be. Five other cases of the same kind occurred previously in my neighborhood, all of which died, when there is no doubt if your Liniment had been used they would have recovered.

Read the following testimony from a Physician.

GENTLEMEN.—Your Hebrew Plaster has cured me of pains of which I have suffered for twelve years past. During this period I labored under an affliction of my loins and side, and tried many remedies that my own medical experience suggested, but without obtaining relief. At length I used your Plaster, and am now by its good effects entirely cured. I will recommend the Jew David or Habrew Plaster to all, who are suff-ring from contraction of the museles, or permanent pains in the side or back.
